PLAY SYNOPSIS:

Ring in the holiday season with a radiant celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ in this modern and soul-stirring classic. This vibrant theater experience illustrates the first Christmas through the lens of African American culture, featuring Langston Hughes' eloquent poetic narrative, scripture, diverse music genres, and dynamic dance performances.

Support Future Educators: Donate to GMU's Professional Clothing Closet at the Black Nativity:

On Dec 5, at CAPAC's Black Nativity, we invite you to support GMU's School of Education by donating to the Professional Clothing Closet. Your gifts help future teachers dress professionally for interviews and fieldwork—please bring urgently needed items:

Clothing Items

- Plus-size women's clothing (women's size 18 and up)
- Professional dresses (all sizes)
- Men's belts

Non-Clothing Items

- Reusable Bags
- Storage bins
- Pants hangers

Please donate clean, gently used, freshly washed clothing (no stains or pet hair). Questions? Email Ms. Vernell Lewis at vlewis4capac@gmail.com
